

Table of Contents

	Page Nos.
1. Executive Summary	2
2. Private Equity Trends - A Graphical Snapshot
3. PE/VC Investments in India during 2009	13-63
3.1 Investment Analysis	13-29
3.1.1 PE investments continue free-fall in 2009	13
3.1.2 Why investments did not take place	13
3.1.3 A closer look at the year 2009: quarter-wise trend	18
- QIPs ruled the domestic market with a preference over PE	20
3.1.4 Top investors turn cautious	21
3.1.5 New funds made no significant impact either	23
3.1.6 Impact reflected in the top deals	25
3.1.7 PE strategies in 2009	27
3.1.8 Venture Capital Trends	28
3.2 Investment trend Analysis	30-63
3.2.1 - Sector-wise investments	30-57
- What's in Microfinance that's attracting money?	53
3.2.2 Stage-wise investments	58-63
4. Fund Raising Activity	64-71
4.1 Money behind the money drying up	64
4.2 Top funds raised during the year	66
- Why domestic LPs cannot completely replace the foreign capital	68
4.3 Trends in the fund raising space	69
5. Liquidity Events	72-75
5.1 Year of opportunistic exits - 2009	72
5.2 Open market: the preferred route of exit	73
5.3 DE Shaw tops the exit list	74
5.4 The year ahead could see a plenty of IPO exits	75
6. Regulatory changes pertaining to the Indian PE/VC industry during 2009	76
7. Underlying challenges	77
8. Trends likely to shape the industry going forward	79
9. India vis-à-vis China in 2009	83
Appendix:
A1 Economic performance during 2009 and what to expect in the year ahead	85
A2 List of Private Equity investments in 2009: Sector-wise	94
A3 Profile of top 10 investors in 2009	107